

UNIFIED

FINE ARTS

SERVICES

CONCIERGE SERVICES

Personalized Art Management for Discerning Collectors & Institutions

Personalized Art Concierge Experience

Unified Fine Arts offers premium concierge services designed to provide seamless, comprehensive support for collectors, galleries, and institutions. Consider us your personal art logistics concierge, dedicated to managing every aspect of your collection with meticulous attention to detail and unparalleled expertise.

Comprehensive Concierge Offerings

Collection Management:

Complete oversight of your entire art collection

Project Management:

We manage every aspect of your project to ensure your peace of mind.

Consultation:

Whether it is handling, installation, deinstallation, transportation, crating, or packing, we offer expert guidance to ensure your treasure and investment are protected.

Courier Service:

Making sure it is on time and intact, we manage all aspects of your fine art shipments, domestic and abroad.

Bespoke Solutions

Our concierge services are fully customizable to meet your specific needs. Whether you require ongoing collection management or assistance with a single project, our team provides tailored solutions with the highest level of service and professionalism.

Dedicated Expertise

Each project is assigned a client services representative for planning and a lead handler or project manager onsite, ensuring seamless communication and exceptional service throughout every interaction with Unified Fine Arts.

Trusted by the Best

Unified Fine Arts lists dozens of local galleries and private collectors, including The Rachofsky House, Dallas Museum of Art, Jones Team Sports, and many others, as clients. Our trustworthy reputation for excellence and care in art storage is built on our commitment to treating every artwork and investment as if it were our own.

The Unified Experience

At Unified Fine Arts, we deliver a personalized experience with assured protection for your treasured artwork, considering your time and budget. As the most experienced fine arts services provider in the Metroplex, we combine time-honored techniques with modern technology to safeguard your investments.

We are creating a world where every work of art and its transformative power are honored and preserved for the next generation. Our commitment is to deliver the highest level of service, technology, and facilities to protect and preserve the treasures and investments of individual art collectors, institutions, and corporations.

PACKING SERVICES

Museum-Standard Art Packing for Ultimate Protection

Expert Art Packing Solutions

Unified Fine Arts provides professional packing services utilizes archival-quality materials and museum standard techniques to ensure the safety and preservation of your valuable artwork during transportation and storage. Our expert team employs specialized methods tailored to each piece's unique requirements.

Comprehensive Packing Capabilities

Custom Art Packing:

Specialized packing solutions for paintings, sculptures, works on paper, and more

Archival Materials:

Museum-grade, acid-free packing materials that protect artwork integrity

Soft Packing:

Professional soft wrapping for local transport and short-term protection

Exhibition Packing:

Specialized solutions for traveling exhibitions and gallery rotations

Collection Packing:

Efficient, systematic packing of entire collections

On-Site Services:

Professional packing at client locations with minimal disruption

Specialized Expertise

Our packing specialists are extensively trained in the proper handling and packing techniques for artworks of all media, sizes, and conditions. We understand the specific requirements of different materials and create custom packing solutions accordingly.

Museum-Standard Procedures

Every packing job follows strict protocols developed from industry best practices:

- Comprehensive condition reporting before packing
- Selection of appropriate materials based on artwork requirements
- Specialized techniques for different artwork types
- Multi-layer protection systems
- Detailed labeling and tracking

The Unified Difference

Our packing services seamlessly integrate with our transportation, installation, and storage offerings, providing complete protection for your artwork throughout its journey. We take pride in finding the simplest, safest, and most cost-effective ways to handle precious collections and exhibits.

TRUSTED EXPERTISE

Since 2007, galleries, museums, private collectors, and institutions have trusted Unified Fine Arts with their most valuable pieces. Our packing expertise ensures artwork arrives in the same condition as when it left—every time.

STORAGE SERVICES

Handling every work of art as if it were our own since 2007

State-of-the-art Storage Facilities

At Unified Fine Arts, we personalize our storage solutions to meet your unique needs. Unified Fine Arts offers the highest caliber art storage and security, with our 85,000 sq. ft. climate-controlled warehouses featuring all the latest in security and fire control systems.

Whether you're a new collector, manage a corporate art collection, or your house doubles as a gallery for acquisitions, our storage solutions are designed to meet the exact needs of your collection.

Storage Solutions

Short-Term Storage

Ideal for between-location transitions, emergencies, or during home renovations *mention conservation space

Long-Term Storage

Museum quality preservation for extended periods

Exhibition Storage

Pre and post-exhibition secure storage

Oversized Object Storage

Storage for large-scale artworks. Our oversized doors can accommodate monumental artworks.

Conservation Space

We have created every inch of our facility to house treasured artworks and collections from museums, galleries, and private collectors across the country.

Storage Features

Climate Control:

Properly maintained temperature and humidity levels to preserve artwork integrity.

Advanced Security:

24/7 monitored security systems for unparalleled protection of your art piece and investment.

Fire Protection:

State-of-the-art fire detection and suppression systems

Courier Service:

Tailored storage solutions for collections of all sizes and to meet your unique needs

Handling:

Our expert team has the most local experience and follow the tried and true museum-standard practices

Accessibility:

Convenient scheduling and private access to your collection when needed in one of our viewing rooms.

Trusted by the Best

Unified Fine Arts lists dozens of local galleries and private collectors, including The Rachofsky House, Dallas Museum of Art, Jones Team Sports, and many others, as clients. Our trustworthy reputation for excellence and care in art storage is built on our commitment to treating every artwork and investment as if it were our own.

The Unified Experience

At Unified Fine Arts, we deliver a personalized experience with assured protection for your treasured artwork, considering your time and budget. As the most experienced fine arts services provider in the Metroplex, we combine time-honored techniques with modern technology to safeguard your investments.

We are creating a world where every work of art and its transformative power are honored and preserved for the next generation. Our commitment is to deliver the highest level of service, technology, and facilities to protect and preserve the treasures and investments of individual art collectors, institutions, and corporations.

TRANSPORTATION SERVICES

Fine Art Transportation That's Ready for Anything

Specialized Art Transportation

Unified Fine Arts provides secure, reliable transportation for valuable artwork locally, regionally, and nationally. Our fleet of purpose-built vehicles is specifically designed for fine art transit, offering the highest level of protection for even the most delicate or valuable pieces.

Our Transportation Fleet

Climate-Controlled Vehicles: Precisely maintained temperature and humidity levels throughout transit

Air-Ride Suspension: Superior shock absorption for minimal vibration

Lift-Gate Equipped: Safe, controlled loading and unloading

Discreet Appearance: Plain white exterior to hide valuable cargo

Spacious Interiors: 109" inside height allowing vertical transport of large paintings

Comprehensive Equipment: Every vehicle is stocked with materials, hardware, and tools

Transportation Services

Local Transportation:

Same-day service within the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex

Regional Routes:

Regular service throughout Texas and neighboring states

National Service:

Coast-to-coast fine art transportation

Shuttle Services:

Regularly scheduled routes between major art markets

LOFO Service:

Last-on, first-off loading for minimal handling

Oversized Shipments:

Specialized transport for extraordinarily large pieces

Exhibition Transport:

Complete logistics for traveling exhibitions

Professional Staffing

Each transportation vehicle is staffed with two professional fine-art handlers, ensuring proper expertise is always available during loading, transit, and delivery. Our teams are thoroughly trained in artwork handling, securing procedures, and transportation best practices.

Industry Connections

Beyond our exclusive transportation services, we maintain relationships with a network of nationally recognized art-trucking companies, allowing us to provide competitive industry prices for all transportation needs.

Serving Major Markets

Unified Fine Arts provides transportation services in major markets, including New York, Los Angeles, Dallas, and Chicago, ensuring consistent quality and expertise across locations.

INSTALLATION SERVICES

Handling every work of art as if it were our own since 2007

Professional Fine Art Installation

Unified Fine Arts provides expert installation services for galleries, museums, private collectors, and corporate clients. Our experienced team handles everything from delicate single works of art to complex multi-work exhibitions with the precision and care your valuable collections deserve.

Installation Capabilities

Museum & Gallery Exhibitions: Complete exhibition installation and de-installation services

Private Collection Display: Residential and corporate art placement and mounting

Wall-Mounted Works: Paintings, photographs, and two-dimensional art

Sculptural Installations: Three-dimensional works from tabletop to monumental scale

Specialized Mounting: Custom brackets, security systems, and display solutions

Lighting Coordination: Working with lighting designers for optimal presentation

Security Integration: Installation of anti-theft and monitoring systems

Final Positioning: Precise placement and aesthetic fine-tuning

De-installation: Safe removal and packing for storage or transport

THE UNIFIED DIFFERENCE

At Unified Fine Arts, we deliver a personalized experience with assured protection for your treasured artworks—considering your timeline and budget. As the most experienced fine arts services provider in the Metroplex, we combine time-honored techniques with modern technology to safeguard your investments. We are creating a world where every art piece and its transformative power are honored and preserved for the next generation. Our commitment is to deliver the highest level of service, technology, and facilities to protect and preserve the treasures and investments of individual art collectors, institutions, and corporations.

Specialized Rigging Services

Certified Rigging Expertise: Only fine art company in the region with a certified rigger

Heavy Lifting Capability: Crane operations up to 250 tons for monumental works

Complex Installations: Multi-component sculptures and challenging placements

Precision Alignment: Exact positioning for multi-part installations

Overhead Installations: Ceiling-mounted and suspended artworks

Specialized Equipment: Custom rigging solutions for unique installation challenges

Installation Services

Site Assessment: Pre-installation evaluation and planning

Condition Documentation: Before and after condition reporting

Custom Mounting Solutions: Fabrication of specialized hardware

Wall Preparation: Structural analysis and reinforcement as needed

Security Integration: Installation of anti-theft and monitoring systems

Final Positioning: Precise placement and aesthetic fine-tuning

De-installation: Safe removal and packing for storage or transport

LOGISTICS SERVICES

Handling every work of art as if it were our own since 2007

Comprehensive Art Logistics Solutions

At Unified Fine Arts, we specialize in the difficult things and know that each customer has a unique set of needs and specifications. This is why we customize our logistics solutions, which are built on a foundation of expertise, precision, and care to ensure your precious collections and exhibits are handled with the utmost attention to detail

Our Logistics Expertise

Installation

From 8-ton Jeff Koons sculptures to 13'x46' Rufino Tamayo paintings, Unified Fine Arts takes pride in finding the simplest, safest, and most efficient approaches to handling precious collections while ensuring flawless execution of both complex installations and de-installations.

Crafting/ Fabrication

At Unified Fine Arts, we offer an à-la-carte variety of custom crates to meet your exact specifications. We can build any kind of crate to fit each unique artwork, and your artwork is protected and preserved.

Packing

While crating provides excellent protection, it is not what is always required. We offer economical alternatives like slipcases, collar boxes, soft packing, and We evaluate each unique situation to determine the optimal solution for protecting your valuable objects and investment.

Transportation

Our trucks are labeled discreetly for safety and to be covertly moving fine art. Our climate-controlled, air-ride suspension vehicles are staffed by a minimum of two professional fine-art handlers and equipped for secure loading of large pieces, offering local, regional, and national transportation services.

Trusted by the Best

Unified Fine Arts lists dozens of local galleries and private collectors, including The Rachofsky House, Dallas Museum of Art, Jones Team Sports, and many others, as clients. Our trustworthy reputation for excellence and care in art storage is built on our commitment to treating every artwork and investment as if it were our own.

The Unified Experience

At Unified Fine Arts, we deliver a personalized experience with assured protection for your treasured artwork, considering your time and budget. As the most experienced fine arts services provider in the Metroplex, we combine time-honored techniques with modern technology to safeguard your investments.

We are creating a world where every work of art and its transformative power are honored and preserved for the next generation. Our commitment is to deliver the highest level of service, technology, and facilities to protect and preserve the treasures and investments of individual art collectors, institutions, and corporations.

UNIFIED

FINE ARTS

14105 Inwood Rd.

Dallas, Texas 75244

sales@unifiedfinearts.com

214.678.9101